

Think It Over: This section is about turning what God is saying to you into action steps. These talking points, questions, and scriptures are designed to help you take your own next step. If you are leading a group through this guide, don't feel like you have to answer every question. Pick out those questions that will stir up conversation and action among your group.

- Look through the Too Many list from the Message Listening Guide. What are some examples for each one? Give an example of when a choice became your undoing instead of a friend.
- Read Deuteronomy 30:19-20 LB. How often does the ability to live safely rise and fall on our choices? How do those choices even affect our kids?
- Read Luke 15:11-14. How did the younger son's choice become his undoing? Which of the Too Many did he fall prey to? Why do you think God gives us choices?
- If we want to develop a Biblical matrix for understanding choices, there are at least five areas to consider. Look at each area and give an example. Why is it so important to understand the difference between them? Where can it be confusing, dividing, and even emotional? How can we really grow to agree to disagree in Christian love and choices?
- Read 1 Corinthians 10:23 MSG. What principle is Paul getting at in the area of practicing Christian choice? What becomes so clear when you read verse 24 MSG? What would the implication be for your life if you began practicing the first two principles for choice?

Next Steps: What are some practical steps to be more intentional in leveraging your choices and using choices to benefit others? Be specific.

Changing Your Mind: Looking at it one way, you could say, "Anything goes. Because of God's immense generosity and grace, we don't have to dissect and scrutinize every action to see if it will pass muster." But the point is not to just get by. We want to live well, but our foremost efforts should be to help others live well. 1 Corinthians 10:23-24 MSG

²³I have the right to do anything," you say—but not everything is beneficial. "I have the right to do anything"—but not everything is constructive

1 Corinthians 10:23 NIV

Too Many...

- activities calling for your commitment
- significant choices to make every day
- sources of information coming at you
- voices shouting for your attention
- things you want and can't have
- people telling you what's important
- entertaining entertainments
- tempting temptations
- things that we "need" to function well

Choices should be our _____ not our _____.

¹⁹...I have set before you life or death, blessing or curse. Oh, that you would choose life; that you and your children might live!²⁰ Choose to love the Lord your God and to obey him and to cling to him, for he is your life and the length of your days. You will then be able to live safely in the land the Lord promised...
